travelnxt | Feature List

A PCI-DSS compliant online booking engine pre-integrated with over 40 travel inventory suppliers, empowering B2B, B2C and B2B2C businesses across the travel industry.

User Features

Social Logins: Users can log in via their existing social media credentials, than having to register separately.

Share Capability: For users to share itineraries, searches, trip folders to various social media sites.

Offline Payment Support: We now support the ability to retain bookings by a method that enables one to pay offline, for e.g., like paying at the counter.

Social Integration: Social sign-in with an ability to pull the user's profile details along with the individual itineraries results and deals that he/she has shared.

User-friendly Interface: With a unique shopping cart based flow for saving, sharing and offering user-defined packages and itineraries that support multiple languages and currencies.
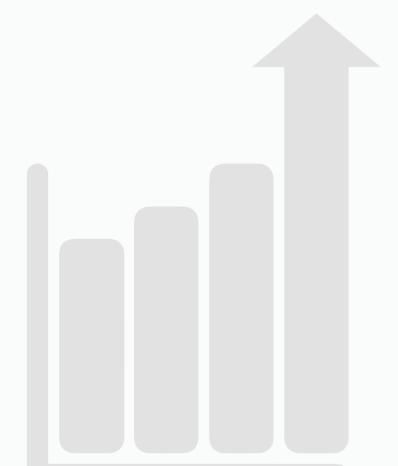

Business Features

Dynamic Markup Support: Dynamically compute markup, based on similar published fare, with the ability to control earnings.

SEO Capability: Ability for content writers to make on the fly changes for urls, meta tags, snippets, page markups and more.

Page Designer: We now provide a page creator that makes it easy to create responsive pages on the fly, with drag and drop and full control over widgets, url, title, meta tags, markup, display, etc.

Offer Your inventory: Such as air, hotel, car, activity and insurance, using a secure PCI PA-DSS compliant online booking engine, integrated with leading GDSs and Consolidators.

Rules Based Promo Codes Support: We support pre made promo codes which can be applied to give discounts at present or future.

Markups And Commission Management: It is effortless with this robust online booking software. Store and sell inventory to B2B, B2C and B2B2C businesses across the globe.

Customer Service Tools: Information, tickets, issues, requests, transaction history, feedback reports and task assignment within the organization.

Request Based Cruise Tour Packages: We support static multi day and multi ship cruise/tour packages.

Travel Agency Management Software: To manage mid and back office operations, affiliate networks, track reports and supervise routine agency operations efficiently.

Static Tour And Package Builder: For creating, publishing and marketing multi-day static packages along with complex tour itineraries on the go, and offer them through your online booking system.

Software Features

Multi-Lingual: Support for both LTR and RTL languages.

Developer Portal: With details of all APIs and flow samples.

Standards Based Security: We support OAuth 2.0 and OpenID Connect 1.0.

Device Detection: Capability to switch display templates based on devices.

Inventory Management System: To load negotiated inventories of hotels, cars, activities and offer your inventory through booking websites and affiliate networks.

Manage Post-Booking Actions: This can be done easily with travelnxt's customizable email templates for – booking confirmations and cancellations, schedule change notifications and payment authentication.

More Than 40 Pre-Integrated Suppliers: Including leading GDSs and Consolidators for air, hotel and car inventories.

Up-To-Date And Accurate Travel Content: For your website integrated with clarifi – The World's First Real-Time Hotel Syndication System.

Full Featured Mobile Friendly APIs: We have APIs offering the full booking portal capabilities like search suggestions, all product bookings, shopping cart, account profile, notifications and more.

Engineering Features

Blue Green Deployment capability for no downtime releases.

Auto Scale capability for handling dynamic loads.

Offered as Hosted & Enterprise Solution.